ABOUT OUR COOPERATIVE, THE COOPCERRADO

DIVERSIFIED COOPERATIVE WHOSE MEMBERS ARE FAMILY FARMERS, EXTRACTIVISTS, FISHERFOLK, RIVERSIDE COMMUNITIES, LAND REFORM SETTLERS AND TOURIST GUIDES IN BRAZIL'S CERRADO SAVANNAH BIOME.

Founded in 2002 in the Brazilian Cerrado by agro-extractivist communities, the CoopCerrado is 100% dedicated to family farmers and extractivists throughout the country, with thousands of families networking to leverage their agroecological, organic and sustainable family livelihoods.

We work with all the social and productive links to organize our members' production, management, organic certification, processing and marketing.

Our mission is to produce healthy, sustainable and organic food and ingredients, valuing and strengthening family-based and extractivist agriculture.

CERTIFICATIONS

We are certified by the Cerrado Agroecological Development Centre (Cedac), to grow and process organic ingredients and products, and by the National Health Surveillance Agency (Anvisa). Our products bear the "Orgânicos do Brasil" label through a participatory system.

In addition, we have the HACCP certificate, a quality certification from a Food Safety Management System based on Codex Alimentarius' HACCP guideline for the food industry.

PRESERVES AND CREAMS

Made with select raw material, our preserves and creams have intense flavour and strong aromas. Gluten-free, pesticide-free, vegan and certified organic, we offer our clients a great variety of preserves from peppers, souari (pequi - Caryocar brasiliense) pulp, baru nuts (Dipteryx alata) and sesame.

Other options for lovers of the Cerrado's regional delicacies include our traditional or spicy souari cream as well as the sesame and baru-nut tahini. For some they bring back childhood memories and, for others, they are an experience in aromas that only the Empório do Cerrado could offer.
