

A local community capacity building to enhance involvement in komodo dragon conservation effort

Komodo Wood Carving Workshop

12-15 November, 2017

Location

Pota, North Flores, Indonesia

Participants

- 2 Trainers from Komodo Village
- 4 Trainees from Pota District
- 4 Trainees from Riung District

i Description

An intensive workshop to make a wooden komodo dragon statue from scratch to a ready-to-sell product

+ Objectives

- To train potential individuals to be skilled wooden komodo dragon statue carvers
- Strengthen local community capability to provide alternative income

The Process

Result

